If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

THE FLEET PASSES VALPARAISO

The American fleet of 16 battleships under the command of Rear Admiral Evans passed Valparaiso yesterday afternoon and continued on its voyage northward for Callao, Peru, the next stopping place. All Valparaiso and thousands of persons from every city in Chili witnessed the passing of the fleet. President Montt and the other high officials of the republic came out from shore to greet the battleships, and almost the entire Chilian navy exchanged salutes with them as they swung around Curaumilla Point and into Valparaiso bay in single file, headed by the Chilian cruiser Chacabuco and five Chilian torpedo-boat destroyers.

Turning sharp around Curaumilla Point at 2:10 o'clock this afternoon, the Chacabuco and the five Chilian destroyers led the Connecticut and her 15 sister ships into the view of the thousands who had awaited their appearance since dawn. The day was perfect and the spectacle of the fleet stretched in a great semicircle as seen from the high hills around the bay was magnificent.

President Montt and other Chilian officials embarked on the training ship General Baquedano and took a position well out in the harbor. Around the Baquedano the fleet swung at a speed of four knots, firing the presidential salute as they passed in review. It was one hour from the time the head of the fleet entered the bay until the last vessel had passed the President's ship and turned toward the open sea. Then the Baquedano lifted anchor and escorted the fleet well out of the bay on its way to the north. It was a great review, such as had never before been seen in Valparaiso bay, and the sight will long be remembered by the people of Chili who came to witness it.

The shipping in the harbor and the principal buildings in the city were dressed for the occasion, as the day was observed as a holiday in honor of the fleet. From the picturesque, sloping hills, dotted with houses, a profusion of bunting and the waving of flags was discernible from the bay. Thousands or persons from Santiago and other places in the republic had come to Valparaiso for the occasion, and the roofs of the Boisa Commercial, with its two huge towers, the custom house and the large warehouses and other buildings along the circular road skirting the bay front were black with spectators.

PHYSICIAN KILLED.

Shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday evening, Dr. Leo Danziger, aged thirty-eight, unmarried, was shot in the head and instantly killed by Robert Ward Gott, aged thirty-five, a farmer, of Princeton, W. Va. Dr. Danziger was a prominent physician of Cincinnati, where he was born.

Dr. Danziger was called several days ago to attend Miss Nannie Spangler, aged seventeen, of Princeton, W. Va., who arrived in Cincinnati ten days ago with her uncle and an aunt, who are also her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ward Gott. On the train going to Cincinnati Miss Spangler was taken very ill, and the services of a physician were urgently needed when she arrived there.

Dr. Danziger was called immediately. On Thursday he was heard to express himself as being distressed with the case, and as fearful of bodily harm from the girl's uncle, Gott, who, he explained, acted queerly and at times threateningly without cause or reason.

There was no one else in the room when Dr. Danziger was shot and killed yesterday evening by Gott, except Miss Spangler. She says her uncle shot Dr. Danziger to protect his own life. Miss Spangler says Dr. Danziger had her uncle by the throat and was fast choking him to death, when her uncle drew his revolver and fired the fatal shot, which entered Danziger's head just in front of the right ear, and passed through his head.

Gott, who is apparently a raving maniac, is strapped to a cot in the City Hospital. He has repeatedly attempted to kill himself by butting his head against the walls of the room where he is confined. In one of his rational moods he said that he had been hypnotized by Dr. Danziger.

Gott had apparently been dissatisfied with the medical treatment Miss Spangler was receiving from Danziger. Dr. Danziger was of quick temper and abrupt of speech, and it is not unlikely that a quarrel, started over the treatment of the girl, ended in the tragedy.

Kodol is a scientific preparation of vegetable acids with natural digestants and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. Each dose will digest more than 3,000 grains of good food. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

TODAY is the tenth anniversary of the blowing up of the battleship Maine in the harbor of Havana by which many United States sailors lost their lives. This event was the beginning of a marked transition in the history of this country, and a train of events have followed, the outcome of which is anticipated with anxiety by many. Previous to February 15, 1898, the United States was a powerful and compact nation, bounded by the two great oceans. Its northern boundary extended into the Arctic regions and its southern confines were virtually in the tropics. Today the country has a precarious title to territory in the antipodes which has necessitated an enormous expenditure in connection with governing islands inhabited in some cases by savages, while the need of a powerful navy in order to perpetuate claims to sovereignty in parts of the far East is an expensive burden upon the people of this country. It has long been a mooted question whether or not Spain should have been held responsible for the destruction of the Maine, many believing the explosion was from the inside. That was a terrible disaster, but many believe the acquisition of Cuba, always a hornets' nest, Porto Rico, the Philippines, the Sandwich Islands and some of the Samoan group, will eventually prove national calamities.

POLICE OFFICIALS of Winnipeg, Man., are making out and serving hundreds of summonses for alleged breaches of the Lord's Day act. The campaign started two Sundays ago, and the first cases appeared in court Wednesday. Already five hundred summonses have been issued, and several hundred more are to be made out. The police are proceeding under instructions of the Police Commission, their action being a counter movement opposed to action by members of the Lord's Day Alliance. Each Sunday police have pounced upon undertakers at funerals, newspaper men making notes of Sunday sermons, and editors. One man was taking a bath when the police arrested him. History is continually repeating itself. Reform movements have at times spread over all countries; but the reaction was inevitable. Within a few years new generations obliterated laws destined to keep the lid down tight, and the last state of certain cities has invariably been worse than the first.

THERE WAS a conference of labor leaders in New York today. Although every effort was made to keep the object of the conference a secret from the rank and file, there is every reason to believe that those who attended the meeting considered the advisability of placing an independent labor candidate for President in the field this year. The seriousness of the situation which confronts organized labor is further augmented by the action taken yesterday by a New Orleans grand jury in returning indictments against representatives of practically every labor union in that city, charging them with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, under the interpretation placed on this measure by the Supreme Court of the United States that labor unions can be prosecuted as a combination in restraint of trade. It was for the purpose of consulting as to plans for the future that President Gompers called this morning's conference.

THE arrest a few days since of several young men charged with shooting a man on the highway near this city and attempted robbery calls to mind the fact that there are a large number of idlers in this city who do not work or do anything for a livelihood, but who dress well and never appear to be either hungry or thirsty. This class of loafers is the vicious class and they invariably subsist on others. They must have money and as they will not work they must steal—this is self-evident. There are sufficient laws on the statute books to meet such cases. The police should arrest all such characters and require them to show their manner of living. If they can not show that they earn a livelihood they are vagrants under the law and should be dealt with as such.

THE MILITARY authorities of Havana are understood to have ordered an immediate investigation of the story from Lajas of a clash in the slums there between United States soldiers and Cubans Thursday night, as a result of which the soldiers are accused of "shooting up" the town and arresting many persons whom they refused to release until after subjecting them to a humiliating search. It is believed, if stories of the outbreak are true at all, that the soldiers acted without authority before their officers could get them in hand after the reported fracas with the native population. Some United States soldiers and sailors are unfortunate, to say the least, when they go from home.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., February 15.

Twenty two hundred tons of supplies and stores, the largest shipment ever made to the Philippines, are now on their way to Cavite, to be held there it is understood pending the arrival of the battleship fleet on its way around the world. The shipment will suffice to supply the big ships for their voyage from the islands home. For the voyage across the Pacific, they will be stocked with supplies now being concentrated at San Francisco, and which will cost approximately $2,000,000. No official admission has yet been made by the Navy Department, that Admiral Evans' fleet will come home by way of Suez, but the shipment of the enormous quantity of supplies to Cavite leads to no other conclusion.

The vice-presidential bee is now said to be buzzing about the head of Ollie James, the giant congressman from Kentucky. Under the possibility of being stung by the bee, the Kentuckian is modestly silent. He does not, however, seem to be making very vigorous efforts to duck out of its way.

State Senator Alfred R. Page, of New York, a close personal friend and supporter of Governor Hughes had a conference with the President today but had nothing to say for publication when the talk was ended. "The Taft people have us skinned to death" said Senator Page, "when it comes to press work. We have nothing to say."

Navigation of the Erie and Welland canals and many important streams flowing into the Great Lakes from both American and Canadian territory will be seriously interfered with if further proposed concessions for water power from the Niagara river either above or below the falls are granted. This is the information which Dr. Winthrop Spencer will lay before the rivers and harbors committee of the House at its hearing on the water power bills on Monday. If the House committee kills or holds up the bills for important water power concessions now before it, it is thought likely by government officials who are directly interested that steps will be taken at the Ottawa conference for a special clause on Niagara concessions to be included in the treaty which is now under way between the United States and Great Britain. The passage of these bills, as now framed, would cause the American falls to disappear altogether, leaving only straggling disconnected seams, Dr. Spencer holds. At the same time the Canadian falls would be contracted fully 1,000 feet, which would confine the remainder within Canadian territory. The disappeared portion would be represented by a bare shelf of rock according to Spencer.

The recent escape of the German ship "Delta" from the custody of the United States marshal at Pensacola, Fla., has become a matter for diplomat adjustment. Marshal McGourin's statement, detailing how the ship fled after being libeled for debt, reached the Department of Justice today and in view of the fact that the vessel is now beyond the jurisdiction of the United States Courts the papers were at once sent to the State Department.

The oldest inhabitant of Washington, Dr. Wm. M. Starr, died early today in his 101st year. Several days ago he was taken to the Emergency Hospital suffering from cystitis. Dr. Starr was a distinguished medical botanist. He lived formerly in Mahoning county, Ohio. In a recent interview he ascribed his long life to the following; "I never ate as much as I could; I never drank intoxicants of any kind; I have never used tobacco in any form; I have never taken more than half a glass of ice water at once; I never drink ice water after meals, thus paralyzing the digestive organs; I have never remained in a draft when overheated; I eat only two meals a day—at 8 a. m. and 4 p. m."

The Weather Bureau has issued a bulletin in which it says the weather will be fair and much colder tonight and Sunday, with high west and northwest winds. Local snows will probably continue.

"Remember the Maine," will be displayed as a signal by Admiral Evans on board the Connecticut today as his fleet sails up the west coast of South America, and the flags on each of the battleships will be dropped to half mast. The same signal will be displayed by all of the U. S. ships in the world.

No child under fourteen years of age will hereafter be allowed to work in any capacity, even as a messenger, for pay, in the District of Columbia, if the bill favorably reported today by the Senate committee on education and labor becomes a law.

Seeking to devise new lines of action, now that the U. S. Supreme Court has destroyed some of the strongest bulwarks of unionism, President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor today held a secret conference with representative leaders from all over the country.

Another blow at the Harriman and other railroads of the west is in contemplation in Congress, the Senate committee on the judiciary having decided to report a resolution directing the Attorney General to make an investigation of land holdings of the land grant railroads for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are refusing to sell their lands to settlers at resonable prices, and, if so, to take steps to compel them to do so.

Two of the most important experiments in the navigation of torpedo vessels yet made by the navy are expected to be put under way today, when the second submarine flotilla will make another attempt to run under independent power from the New York navy yard to Annapolis without stop and the third torpedo boat flotilla will begin an anticipated record run from Hampton Roads down the southern coast to St. Joseph's bay, near Pensacola, Fla.

Exceeding the most optimistic predictions and indicating the strength of the investment demand after the monetary crisis, the $50,000,000 issue of New York city 4½ per cent bonds, the largest lot ever offered for public subscription by the city, was oversubscribed six times yesterday. No less than 1,168 bids were made, and Comptroller Metz said that he believed 104 would get the bonds, a higher price than for the last offering of $40,000,000 bonds at 4½ per cent. which, though oversubscribed four times, brought the city about 102.063. The higest price offered yesterday was 106, by Kuhn & Co., for $100,000 worth.

The commercial growth of the South is graphically illustrated in a compilation of statistics just made by the Department of Commerce and Labor. It is shown that in the past ten years the value of the exports through the gulf ports increased 140 per cent, from $181,000,000 in 1897 to $433,000,000 in 1907. Imports increased in value in the same period from $18,000,000 to $62,000,000. The trade of New Orleans has increased in about the same proportion. Savannah increased in exports from $26,000,000 to $65,000,000 and in imports from one million to two million.

The statutory prohibition bill, which was the special order of the day on Thursday in the Mississippi Senate, was passed by a vote of 36 to 4. The bill provides that all licenses now in existence in the State shall cease December 31. Only eight counties license the sale of whisky. The Governor has already signified his intention of immediately signing the bill.

It is said there will be two reports from the committee which investigated the charges against Judge Rhea, of Bristol, Senator Wickham, one of the Senate members of the joint committee on nominations, offered a resolution providing that the evidence taken at the hearing shall be printed before the committee presents its report. The resolution was adopted by a vote of 19 to 18.

Her body was burned to a crisp. A few days ago she was arraigned before the Good Samaritan Lodge, of which she was a member, on some charge. This preyed on her mind, and it is thought to be the cause of the rash act.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 15.—The stock market during the first hour of an advance at the opening was disappointing. The market apparently felt the loss of the protection cause by heavy covering of shorts yesterday and when profit taking started there was little demand around the then current quotations.

The Legislature.

SENATE.

Senator Wickham offered a joint resolution yesterday, which was adopted, calling for the printing of the evidence taken in the Rhea investigation.

The Senate finance committee has agreed to increase the pension fund of the State to $400,000, making an addition of $100,000 for the next two years.

The senate committee on fish and game reported, with a substitute, the Sale bill creating a commission of fisheries. The substitute recommended by the committee fixes the salary of the fish commissioner at $2,000, the secretary's at $1,500, and scales the annual appropriation to $45,000.

Members of the commission, other than the chief, are to receive no pay, but are allowed actual necessary expenses while engaged in the State's work.

The bill provided for normal instruction in certain high schools was passed.

Senator Ward offered a bill to establish the office of secretary of Virginia military records, and to collect material for the "History of Virginia in the Civil War."

HOUSE.

The Byrd liquor law, which is a codification of all existing statutes, and which means total prohibition throughout the State in all cities and towns of 500 inhabitants or less, was passed in the House yesterday afternoon by a vote of 60 to 3. The bill now goes to the Senate for concurrence. This measure is the most important dealing with the liquor question which has yet come to the attention of the legislature.

Speaker Byrd introduced a bill to compel, indirectly, the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad to apply for a new charter, which will place the road on the same footing with other corporations, and which also will require the company to pay taxes to the State, and to conform to all the laws regarding corporations and the rates for transporting passengers and freights. The railroad now is operated under a charter about seventy-five years old. Mr. Byrd's bill enforces a provision of the old charter, requiring the road to stop any and all of its trains whenever a passenger shall signal at any point, and to take up and set down such passengers at any point they may designate, regardless of whether it is a recognized and established stopping place of the railroad company.

The House finance committee reported favorably the bill providing for the establishment of a public school at Laurel reformatory. The report was unanimous.

The House discharged the courts of justice committee from further consideration of John Curlett's bill, providing that the time for the payment of poll taxes in the State be reduced from six months to sixty days. This action on the part of the House places the bill on the calendar just as if it had passed the committee.

BREAK-UP OF CONCERT.

What is practically the break up of the European concert on the Macedonian question has come as a shock to the chancelleries of the continent and England, particularly as a quiet diplomatic session had been anticipated. The assent of Germany to the management of Moroccan affairs by France, the conclusion of agreements to maintain the status quo in the Mediterranean, and the opening of negotiations looking to treaties that should accomplish a similar purpose with regard to the North Sea seemed to make the possibility of differences arising among the powers remote.

The conferences of the ambassadors at Constantinople also appeared to be going on smoothly, when a bomb was thrown into camp by the announcement made by Baron Von Bieberstein, the German ambassador, that Germany would no longer act with the other powers in insisting that Turkey consent to their demands.

As to the cloud that has arisen between Russia and Austria-Hungary over the projects for railroad extension in Macedonia of the latter State, the right of Austria-Hungary to secure a concession for the Novipazer Railroad line, and the justice of Germany supporting her ally are recognized in England, but it is contended that the present time is inopportune for the raising of this point.

It is now said that the official breaking up of all these international understandings will aggravate the Macedonian question, reopen the whole near east problem, start a contest for railroad concessions which may lead to serious results and enable Turkey to postpone the reforms for which the ambassadors have been working.

WOMAN ROBBED.

Miss May K. Mullan, of 1310 Connecticut avenue northwest Washington, was attacked by a negro at the northwest corner of Connecticut avenue and N streets about 7 o'clock last night. She was mailing a letter at the letter box in front of the British Embassy, when a negro stuck out his foot and tripped her up. She fell forward, striking her head against the curb and cutting a deep gash in her forehead. The negro grabbed her handbag, which contained $19 in money and about $60 in checks, and ran down the street, making his escape in the fog. Some passers-by found Miss Mullan lying on the sidewalk and helped her to her home. The assault caused considerable excitement, as Miss Mullan is the daughter of Capt. John Mullan, a retired army officer, and is well know socially.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Chaulnes-Shonts Wedding.

New York, Feb. 15.—America added another to her list of duchesses, happy and otherwise, at noon today when Miss Theodora Shonts, daughter of Theodore P. Shonts, head of the Inter-borough Railroad Company and former chief of the Panama Canal Commission, became the bride of the Duc de Chaulnes. The ceremony was performed at the Shonts residence in east Thirty-fifth street by Mgr. Lavelle, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, assisted by the Rev. J. J. Byrne.

The wedding brought the culmination of a somewhat romantic courtship, marked by the persistence of the Duc de Chaulnes in the face of numerous denials that he would be allowed to marry the American, and serious obstacles placed in his path by the father of his bride of today. It was only after a year's probation, in which the foregin suitor proved himself worthy, that Mr. Shonts gave his consent.

Society turned out in force to the ceremony, and numerous valuable presents were showered on the young couple. A choral service by the boy choir and male quartet of St. Patrick's Cathedral marked the ceremony. American beauty roses, lilies of the valley and southern smilax were the floral decorations. The bride was gowned in a white duchess satin creation with a train five yards long. Miss Marguerite Shonts, the bride's sister, was her only attendant. Prince Andre Galitzine, uncle of the groom, was best man. Several of the Duc de Chaulnes' titled relatives from abroad were among the guests.

The United States Fleet.

Valparaiso, Chili, Feb. 15.—Yesterday's display by the American battleship squadron in Valparaiso harbor has unquestionably rendered it impossible for Admiral Evans to make up the two days lost by the fleet at Punta Arenas, and the fleet will be behind its schedule during all the rest of its voyage to the California coast. The squadron swung into the harbor in single file and passed around the water front in a wide semicircle and steamed on out to sea at about ten miles an hour. Salutes of twenty-one guns were exchanged as the craft passed, first the harbor forts and after the training ship General Baquedano, from which the President reviewed the parade. The fleet will be met at San Gallan Island by the Peruvian cruiser Bolognesi, which will act as an escort to Callao, the next stopping place. Arriving there February 20, the squadron will remain nine days. The United States torpedo flotilla is at present at Puerto Mont, 600 miles south of here.

Boy's Experience.

Felmington, N. J., Feb. 15—After being marooned all night in the center of the South branch river bridge, hemmed in by floating ice packs which cut off all escape to shore seven-year old Eddie Matthews was rescued today half dead from fright and cold. With Fred Rowe and Abner Marshall, Eddie was driving home last night when the team became stalled on the bridge. The river had risen until water, carrying great floes, was rushing over the bridge ahead of the wagon. As they reached the center of the structure part of the bridge was washed away behind them. Forgetting the boy, Marshall and Rowe headed for the shore. They were able to land after a hard swim. Then the horses were washed away leaving the lad alone on the wagon. An alarm was sounded and all night rescuers worked to reach the boy. It was morning, however, before enough ice had been cleared away to launch a boat, Eddie had stuck out the torture bravely and is little the worse for his experience.

The Recent Tornadoes.

Tyler, Tex., Feb. 15.—Rescue parties are scouring the rural districts through which yesterday's tornado passed and until they are heard from or completer wire communication is reestablished, it will be impossible to tell exactly how many were killed and injured in the storm. Probably the early estimates of twenty killed and twice as many hurt will prove to be not far from correct.

Meridian, Miss., Feb. 15.—Arrivals here from Mossville, Service and Soso the Jones county towns swept by the tornado yesterday, say they think the total list of dead will amount to about ten and that fifteen or twenty were injured. Of the dead it is believed all were negroes. The property damage was very heavy, the three towns being practically destroyed.

Thomas's Proposition.

New York, Feb. 15.—E. R. Thomas, turfman and banker, has intimated to his creditors that he is willing to turn over to them all but $50,000 of the $180,000 annual income left in trust to him by his father, the late General Sam Thomas. He estimates that he and his wife need $50,000 a year to live in New York. As his debts are unofficially estimat at $2,700,000, it will take some time to pay them from the balance of the $130,000. The creditors will meet some time next week to think the proposition over. A few of them are said to think that $15,000 a year would keep a husband and wife even here if they live frugally.

CONSPICUOUS IN A BALLROOM.

It must be annoying to the wearer, and certainly not a pleasant thing to observe. But dandruff can be eradicated. It is a germ disease that will some day cause baldness.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the hair-destroying germ, and stimulates the hair to a rich, abundant growth; it does more—keeps the hair soft and pliant.

Unconfirmed Reports.

London, Feb. 15.—Confirmation is still lacking of last night's reports that the Shah of Persia has been assassinated. Few accept the rumor as true. Communication with Teheran is always unreliable, and it is quite likely that the Persian government might wish to delay such news as long as possible.

Kennedy's laxative Cough Syrup acts upon the bowels and thereby drives the cold out of the system. It contains no opiates—it is pleasant to take and is highly recommended for children. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

Danger of Flood.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 15.—With both the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers rising at the rate of 1.3 feet an hour, Pittsburg is rapidly nearing the flood stage. The heavy rainfall last night at the head waters of the Allegheny and continued rains today have swollen both rivers until at 10 this morning they had passed the 20-foot mark. Twenty-two feet is the flood stage and the local weather forecaster issued a warning today to prepare for thirty feet of water. The Allegheny river is a mass of floating ice from the Freeport and Kiskiminetas gorges.

Houses Submerged.

Springfield, O., Feb. 15.—Eight houses in the lowland district are completly submerged today as the result of the Buck Creek overflowing its banks during the night. The flood is the worst in years. In at least a hundred other homes police and citizens in boats are rescuing people from the second stories. Traffic and business is at a stand still. No trains are being operated on the Sandusky division of the Big Four Railroad because of wash outs.

Schooner's Crew Rescued

Eastport, L. I. Feb. 15.—Only the breeches buoy saved eleven men from death in the sea when the three-masted schooner Howard B. Peck, was driven ashore about a mile west of the Quogo life saving station early today. After unsuccessful efforts to reach the schooner in life boats a line was shot aboard the wrecked vessel. Captain Dodd and the ten men of his crew were hauled ashore through a terrific surf which almost battered out their lives.

Grip in London.

London, Feb. 15.—London is having the worst epidemic of grip in its history. It is worse in the West End, where the "fashionable," live. So many people are ill that business is seriously handicapped.

Premier Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, chief secretary for Ireland, Augustine Birrell and Lord Privy Seal the Marquis of Ripon are among the victims.

Spaniards Entrenching.

Madrid, Feb. 15.—The Spanish force under General Marina, which occupied Marchica, Morocco, yesterday, is entrenching itself today, according to dispatches from the front in anticipation of an attack by the Moors. News that Marchica is being fortified is heightening the country's fear that Spain is about to become involved in the troubles in Morocco.

Looking For Snow.

New York, Feb. 15.—Detectives today are watching every out-going train, each ferry house and all steamboat piers on guard for Henry S. Snow, former treasurer of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company, to arrest him on the indictment found against him in Brooklyn yesterday charging him with larceny of the company's funds.

Sixtieth Congress.

HOUSE

The tenth anniversary of the blowing up of the Maine in Havana harbor was referred to in the prayer which the Chaplain delivered at the opening of the House today.

A joint resolution was passed in the House today naming Charles F. Choate, jr., of Southboro, Mass., as a member of the board of regents of the Smithsonian Institution to succeed Richard Olney, resigned.

Roasting the police force of the District of Columbia, Mr. Sims made a sensational speech regarding the "reign of terror" in Washington following the repeated attacks on women. The climax, he said, had come last night when a woman was assaulted in front of the British Embassy. Abolition of the saloons, he continued, would be the best remedy.

TORNADOES IN THE SOUTH.

Tornadoes of unusual severity, doing much damage to property and causing the death of many persons, occured in Mississippi and Texas yesterday.

Incomplete reports place the number of dead at 16 or 20, with probably over a hundred injured.

Three Mississippi towns, Mossville, with a population of 500, and the villages of Noso and Service, are reported blown away, while Tyler, Texas, a city of 12,000 inhabitants, is badly wrecked.

All farms in the tracks of the storm are devastated; the farm buildings are in ruins and the crops destroyed. The Texas tornado swept everything clean in a path five miles wide.

Telephone and telegraph wires are down and full reports have not been received.

A New Orleans grand jury yesterday returned indictments against representatives of practically every labor union in the city, charging them with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Neglected Colds Threaten Life.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well-established ripe cold is the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold." Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

FIRE AT CHARLOTTESVILLE.

At an early hour yesterday morning, as stated in the Gazette of that day, the Michie Grocery Company's warehouse, on South street, Charlottesville, was burned, with a loss of about $80,000. The insurance, amounted to about $70,000. The building was packed with goods from cellar to garret, rendering the work of the firemen ineffectual, although for four hours large streams were kept in play. Several carloads of goods on the side track near the warehouse were removed by the railroad company and saved from destruction. Some nearby property was threatened, some of it even taking fire.

The building was the property of Mr. R P. Valentine and was valued at $8,000. It was on the site of the building—then occupied by a branch warehouse of Charles King & Sons—which was burned in the spring of 1897, with the loss of two lives, resulting from explosions and falling debris. The stock destroyed yesterday morning belonged to the Michie Grocery Company, of which James P. Michie was president, Frederick W. Twyman secretary and T. E. Powers treasurer. Armour & Co. were losers of stock amounting to $3,500. The Michie company will at once rebuild and resume business.

ESCAPED LYNCHERS

Walter Rippey, colored, aged twenty, the confessed assailant of two women, near Pocahontas, Va., is in jail at Tazewell, after narrowly escaping lynching at the hands of a mob of angry miners.

One of the negro's victims was white and the other colored. Wednesday afternoon, at Boissevain, he overpowered the colored woman, the wife of James Cooles, and Thursday afternoon near Browningstown, he attacked in her home, Mrs. J. A. Dancy, the widow of a miner, who was a few months ago killed by an explosion in the mines. Mrs. Dancy was assailed by the negro in the presence of an aged woman who was with her, and her little six year-old son, whom he frightened with a pistol.

Rippy fled to the mountains and crossed into West Virginia, where he was captured while asleep in a powerhouse at Coalvale.

Rippey was tried at Tazewell at the August term, 1907, for attacking two girls, near Pocahontas, but sufficient evidence could not be secured to convict him.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the Senate yesterday Senators Clay and Lodge made the principal addresses during the debate on the Aldrich bill, both indicating opposition to the bill.

A bill authorizing the repayment of money advanced on land entries which for any other reason than fraud have not been completed was passed.

The house in committee of the whole proceeded to the further consideration of the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriation bill. The bill was taken up under the five-minute rule as reported by the committee on appropriations for amendment.

WEDDING AT ACCOTINK.

Miss Mattie R. Troth's marriage to Mr. George C. Gillingham took place at eight o'clock, Wednesday evening, February 12th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Troth, at Accotink. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Council, former pastor of Woodlawn Baptist Church, in which the bride was an efficient worker and Sunday school teacher. The bride, a tall and stylish girl, was becomingly attired in a gown of sheer mull and lace, and carried a large bouquet of white roses from the conservatories of Mount Vernon. She was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Troth, who wore a gown of persian mull and white taffeta ribbons. Mr. Scott Gillingham, brother of the groom, was best man, and both wore the conventional black evening suits, and white vests. The musical features were furnished by Miss Ella Gillingham, and to the strains of Mendelssohn's ever beautiful wedding march, the bridal company entered the tastefully decorated parlor, and took their places. The ceremony was beautiful and impressive, and was witnessed only by a few close friends of the happy pair. Delicious refreshments, followed by coffee, were served directly after the ceremony. At nine o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Gillingham left for Alexandria, taking the midnight train there for an extended tour in the west. The bride's traveling gown was of blue broadcloth, with hat to match. The presents were numerous, useful, and beautiful, consisting of much silver and china. A plentiful shower of rice rained upon the bride and groom as they left the home. Immediately upon the return of Mr. and Mrs. Gillingham, they will assume the duties of housekeeping, their future home being in the vicinity of Mount Vernon, and near to Mr. Gillingham's former home.

MR. TOWNE'S LECTURE.

The lecture last night of Hon. Charles A. Towne on "A Hop, Step and Jump Through the Orient" in the Young People's Building of the M. E. Church South was well-attended. Mr. Towne came here from Washington on the palace car "Mount Vernon" and at the close of the lecture returned on that car accompanied by a committee of citizens.

The lecture was interesting and instructive, and Mr. Towne's description of the orientals and their customs was highly enjoyed by his attentive audience. He concluded with a criticism of the United States for the manner in which the Philippines were taken possession of, and urged that in good time they should be restored to their proper owners—the Filipinos.

DEATH OF MRS. FULLER

Caroline Orton Fuller, widow of Col. Irving W. Fuller, died a few days ago in New York. She was born in Binghamton, in 1845, the daughter of Dr. Jason R. Orton, and in 1850 went to Brooklyn. She later became a member of Plymouth Church. At the suggestion of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Gen. O. O. Howard she came to Alexandria, where she conducted a freedmen's school which was supported by members of Beecher's congregation and friends. She afterward married Col. Irving W. Fuller, of the First Missouri Cavalry, in Washington, and returned to Brooklyn to live. Col Fuller, who died in 1892, fough in the Confederate army, and was widely known as the father of street railway advertising.

VALENTINE NIGHT.

Notwithstanding the fog and mist of last night many boys and girls were engaged in placing valentines under doors in all parts of the city. Most of the missives were caricatures, and those sending them were animated by a spirit of pleasantry. In some cases, however, those receiving the comic pictures did not view the juvenile pranks in good part.

HANDSOME DONATIONS

Among the many handsome and costly donations received by the Elks' Carnival Committee two deserving mention are on exhibition in the window of L. Shuman & Son's store on King street. One is a beautiful set consisting of a pitcher and six steins adorned by the emblem of the order—the head of the animal from which the order derives its name and the dial of a clock on which the hand points to eleven. This novel and elaborate set was received through Mrs. Lorenzo Wolford and will be placed at the disposal of the fancy booth, presided over by Mrs. Jacob Brill, Mrs. Samuel Bendheim, Mrs. Lorenzo Wolford and Mrs. M. R. O'Sullivan. The other is a 20-pound pyramid cake in which has been placed a beautiful gold ring donated to the Martha Washington Candy Booth, presided over by Mrs. Charles B. Marshall, Mrs. James W. Bales, Mrs. George H. Schwarzmann and Mrs. J. Edward Shinn. The cake will be sold in slices and the one buying the lucky slice will be rewarded with the ring.

Animation reigns supreme at the armory and in addition to the mechanics employed in placing the booths in position the members have entered heartily on the task of beautifying the building. The taste displayed in the decorations can be better appreciated by a peep in the hall. If appearances are not deceiving this carnival will eclipse any similar event ever held in this city.

THE WEATHER.

A heavy fog and disagreeable misty rain settled over this city and vicinity yesterday afternoon and last night the atmosphere was almost impenetrable. The weather was rainy and warm throughout the night, the mercury early this morning standing at 55°.

After having been obscured for almost a week, the skies cleared about 11 o'clock this morning and the sun came out to the joy of everybody. The clearing conditions followed a strong southwestern wind and by noon the mercury had risen to 68°. Later the skies became overcast again.

The steamer Washington, Captain Phillips, from Norfolk, arrived at this port this morning two hours and a half hour late on account of fog which extended over the bay and greater part of the river last night. A high southeast wind set in after the steamer reached the Potomac.

"Southwest storm warning from Jacksonville, Fla., to New York; severe storm central over Ohio valley moving rapidly southeast. High southwest winds Saturday, shifting to northwest winds Saturday night."

MR. SNYDER'S CONDITION.

The condition of Mr. T. J. Snyder, who was shot on Shooter's Hill road last Tuesday night and who has since been at the Alexandria Hospital, has slightly improved. The ball which passed into his lung has not been located, and the physicians attending the wounded man have determined to remove him to Washington in order to use the X-rays on him.

Drowns, Hicks and Cook, the young men arrested on suspicion of holding up and shooting Mr. Snyder, are still being held awaiting the result of his injury. Mr. S. G. Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, had a talk with Drowns, Hicks and Cook this morning. They still maintained their innocence of the crime.

GRAND CONCERT.

The Musurgia Glee Club of Washington, consisting of 30 voices, will give a concert for the benefit of Grace Church improvement fund, on Thursday evening, February 27th, in the Young Men's Lyceum on Duke street. The oratorio of "The Desert" will be rendered in the first part; and solo work, consisting of old songs and several humourous readings by Mr. Edwin Callow, who comes well recommended from New York and elsewhere, will make the programme of the second part of the entertainment.

WANT TOWN INCORPORATED.

A meeting of the Citizens' Improvement Association of Jeffersen district, Alexandria county, washeld last night at the Del Ray schoolhouse. Mr. Walter U. Varney was designated as a committee to go to Richmond, to appear before the Senate committee on cities, towns and corporations, and urge the passage of a bill having for its object the incorporation of Del Ray and St. Elmo under the name of "Potomac." A committee has already appeared before the same committee in the house of delegates.

DAMAGING TREES.

The trees in front of some residences on south Fairfax street have recently been mutilated by hatchets in the hands of mischievous boys or men. In some cases the damage is of such a nature that the trees are liable to die. Hatchets or tomahawks, it seems, are to play a part in the parade on the 22d instant and some youngsters have already armed themselves with these weapons. Defacing property will call for a fine of five dollars should any one be arrested for cutting trees.

MEETING TONIGHT.

The George Washington Birthday Association will meet tonight when reports from the several committees having in charge the celebration next Saturday will be received and further arrangements made for the parade. The members of the press committee will have their headquarters in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce.

Attention is directed to the advertisement on this page of R. Lee Field, the clothier. Mr. Field will remove his business to 612 King street. He is sacrificing his entire stock, and intends to enter his new store with an entire new line of gents' furnishings.

Kipling at Work.

"I have lounged in Rudyard Kipling's den at Brattleboro, Vt., before he deserted America for England and saw him at his work. He sat at his table in a revolving chair. I had a book in my hand and said nothing unless I was spoken to, for I was enjoying a great privilege that was granted to no one else but his wife. He would write for a moment, perhaps for ten or fifteen minutes at a time. If he was writing verses he would hum very softly to himself an air which probably kept the rhythm in his mind. When writing prose, he was silent, but often he would lay down his pen, whirl round in his chair and chat for awhile. It might be something relating to the subject he was treating or bear no relation to it. Suddenly he would wheel back again, and his pen would fairly fly over the paper. He can easily concentrate his thoughts and as easily descend from cloud land to the commonplace of the day, though in his mind and on his lips nothing is ever commonplace. Some of his poems he has written when speeding in a Pullman car at the rate of sixty miles an hour."—Pacific Monthly.

Birds Shot With Water.

Shooting a humming bird with the smallest bird shot made is out of the question, for the tiniest seeds of lead would destroy his coat. The only way in which the bird can be captured for commercial purposes is to shoot him with a drop of water from a blowgun or a fine jet from a small syringe. Skillfully directed, the water stuns him. He falls into a silken net and before he recovers consciousness is suspended over a cyanide jar. This must be done quickly, for if he comes to his senses before the cyanide whiff snuffs out his life he is sure to ruin his plumage in his struggles to escape. Humming birds vary in size from specimens perhaps half as large as a sparrow to those scarcely bigger than a bee. The quickest eye cannot follow them in full flight. It is only when, though still flying furiously, they are practically motionless over flowers that the best marksman can bring them to earth.—New York Press.

The Feeding of Dogs.

"No dog kept indoors and indeed very few outside should be fed on meat nor should he be fed from the table at mealtimes, as he will soon become a nuisance, especially when there are visitors. If he is always fed at the conclusion of a certain meal—dinner, for instance—he will wait patiently until the prescribed time. It is a good plan to feed after one's midday meal, giving plenty of green vegetables, bread and potatoes, with a very few scraps of finely cut meat, the whole well mixed and some gravy poured over it. If two meals are given, one should be at breakfast time and one in the evening. One should consist of only a little oatmeal and milk or a piece of dry dog biscuit.

"At no time should the dog have more than he will eat, and if he leaves anything on his plate except the pattern his allowance should be reduced or a meal omitted."—Suburban Life.

The Shoulder Strap.

If it were possible to compile such data it would be extremely interesting to know to what extent women have influenced the uniforms and equipment of their fighting states. A little instance in point is the steel curb shoulder strap of the British cavalry.

When Sir George Luck was setting out for Kandahar during the Afghan operations Lady Luck, knowing probably something of the fighting methods of the tribesmen, whose four foot knife can cut clean from shoulder to belt, sewed a couple of steel curb chains under each of the shoulder straps on her husband's tunic. As a protection from sword cuts these proved so effective that at the end of the campaign Sir George made a report in relation thereto, with the result that they were adopted as a permanent feature of the cavalry uniform.—Harper's Weekly.

Seized Her Opportunity.

He was not a very rapid wooer, and she was getting a bit anxious.

Again he called, and they sat together in the parlor, "just those two."

"Oh, bother!" she said. "Who can be calling?"

"Say you're out," said the deceiver.

"Then say you're engaged," he urged.

"Oh, may I, Charlie?" she cried as she threw herself in his arms.

A Rejection Slip.

"Sir," said the shivering beggar, stopping the prosperous magazine editor on the street, "I have a long, sad story"—

"Sorry," briskly replied the magazine editor, passing on, "but we are only open for short, funny stories now; full of the other kind."—Success Magazine.

No Thanks.

Good Trade.

"Well, I'm sooted with mine, too," said the chimney sweep.

"And mine is out of sight," said the diver.

Like Marrying a Title.

Old Auntie Mandy, who did the washing, was such a happy, brave old soul that, although she worked very hard early and late and must often have been weary, nothing could depress her. In everything that occurred she saw only "good luck" for herself. One day she brought home the washing in a high state of glee.

"Jes' think, Mis' Arnold," she said, "I's goin' ter git married. Isn't dat jes' fine luck fo' poor, old black woman like me?"

"I shall be very sorry to lose you, Mandy," said Mrs. Arnold, "but I'm glad if your life will be easier."

"Lose me!" gasped Mandy. "Lor'! Mis' Arnold, I can't afford to let you lose me jes' now. Why, I's goin' ter marry Br'er Johnson an' his five chillun. I's got ter hustle now, fur sartin."

"But I fail to see where your good luck is coming in from such a marriage, Mandy."

"Why, chile, if I marry dat man an' his chillun he's promised me six mo' big washes his fust wife done had! Dat's clar luck, Mis' Arnold, clar luck, 'sides habin' de honor ob marryin' in Br'er Johnson's fambly!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

When Goethe Dictated.

In Wilhelm Bode's "Studies With Goethe" an interesting chapter is made up from the recollections of his last secretary, Christian Schuchardt. Of Goethe's method when he dictated "Wilhelm Meister" Schuchardt says: "He dictated with a certainty and rapidity which made one fancy that he was reading from a printed book. If this had been done in quiet and without interruption, I would not have marveled so much. But while the work was proceeding there came the barber, the hairdresser—Goethe had his hair singed every other day and had it dressed daily—the library servant, often the former secretary, his clerk, all of whom had access to his study unannounced. Friends called, the barber gossiped, the librarian told about books newly received, some member of the family would enter and join in the conversation, and finally, when all was again quiet, I would read the last sentence, and the dictation would proceed as though there had been no interruption.

Talked Too Much.

In a certain village of New Hampshire there is a quaint old character known as Boss Mellin keenly alive to the truth of the old saying, "Silence is golden." Mellin's gift in this respect approaches genius, though he was fully aware of what he deemed his shortcomings therein.

Mellin used to make mattresses for a living. One day a native of the place entered his shop and asked, "Boss, what's the best kind of a mattress?"

"Husks," was the laconic response of Boss.

Twenty years later, so runs the tradition, the same man again entered the shop and again asked what, in the opinion of Mellin, was the best kind of a mattress.

"Straw," said Boss.

"Straw? You told me husks was the best!"

Boss Mellin emitted a sigh. "I've always ruined myself by talkin'," said he.

Maiden Insurance.

The Maiden Insurance company is a singular Denmark institution. It is confined to the nobility, and the nobleman, as soon as a female child is born to him, enrolls her name on the company's books and pays in a certain sum and thereafter a fixed annual amount to the treasury. When the young girl has reached the age of twenty-one she is entitled to a fixed income and to an elegant suit of apartments, and this income and this residence, both almost princely, are hers until she either marries or dies. The society has existed for generations. It has always prospered. Thanks to it, poverty stricken old maids are unknown among the Denmark nobility, but every maiden lady is rich and happy.

Not Responsible.

"Hold on," said the learned chemist. "Didn't I give you a bottle of my wonderful tonic that would make you look twenty years younger?"

"You did," replied the patient, "and I took it all. I was then thirty-nine, and now I am only nineteen."

"Well, then, will you please settle this bill you owe me for the treatment?"

"Oh, no! As I am only nineteen now, I am a minor, and minors are not held responsible for the bills they incur. Good day, sir."—Illustrated Bits.

A Cruel Inscription.

I plant these shrubs upon yo grave,
dear wife,
That something on this spot may boast of life.
Shrubs may wither and all earth must rot;
Shrubs may revive, but you, thank heaven, will not.

The Cheaper Way.

"Do you know, hubby, that when I go to Ostend I shall dream of you every night?"

"If it's all the same to you, I would prefer to have you stay with me and dream of Ostend."—Fliegende Blatter.

Turkish Farriery.

Turkish horseshoes are simply a flat plate of iron with a hole in the middle. In his volume of "Personal Adventures" Colonel J. P. Robertson describes the extraordinary method of preparing the horse to be shod.

The farrier takes a good long rope, doubles it and knots a loop at the end to about the size of a good large horse collar. This is put over the horse's head after the manner of a horse collar, the knot resting on the horse's chest.

Then the two ends of rope are brought between his legs. Each rope, then taken by a man, is hitched on to the fetlocks of his hind legs and brought through the loop in front; then by a hard, steady pull the hind legs are drawn up to the fore legs, and the horse falls heavily on his side.

All four feet are then tied together by the fetlocks, the horse is propped up on his back, and the farrier sits quietly down beside him, takes off all the old shoes and puts on new. When the work is finished the horse is untied and allowed to get up.

Crab Has 2,000,000 Joints.

The crab known as the scale tailed apus was believed to have become extinct in Great Britain fifty years ago, the last recorded specimens being taken in the ponds on Hampstead heath. But now it has turned up again in some numbers in two ponds on Preston Merse, near Southwick, in Kirkcudbrightshire. About two and a half inches long, the apus bears a very striking likeness to that remarkable creature, the king crab, and this because the fore part of the body is covered by a great semicircular shield or carapace, while, as in the king crab, it swims on its back. In the great number of its legs the scale tailed apus has few rivals, while in the number of the points which these share between them no other creature can compare. The naturalist Schaffer once essayed the task of counting them and made the magnificent total of 1,802,604. Latrelle put down the number at a round 2,000,000.—London Graphic.

German Universities.

The examination for the degree of doctor of philosophy in the German universities will be sufficiently illustrated by giving in brief the requirements in the University of Jena. The candidate after gaining permission to enter for the degree presents a short sketch of his life in Latin or German, a maturity certificate, evidence of at least three years of academical study, evidence that he has enjoyed a good reputation up to the present time, an original scientific treatise in German in his own handwriting and a written declaration on word of honor and oath that the thesis is the candidate's own composition. The payment of 240 marks is required. In the oral examination the subject of chief importance is that of which the thesis treats, while the candidate is allowed to select two minor subjects. After this examination and the distribution of 280 copies of the thesis to the faculty the degree is conferred.—School Bulletin.

Insect Hypnotism.

"Did you ever know," said the hypnotist as he played with a curious, glittering hypnotizing machine of crystal and silver, "did you ever know that hypnotism is practiced among insects?"

"No."

"Well, it is a fact. A queen bee can hypnotize her whole hive whenever she wants to. She makes a curious humming sound, and within a moment or two every bee in the colony falls into a hypnotic trance.

"The death's head hawk moth is also a hypnotist of great power. This creature, indeed, makes its living out of hypnotism. Entering a hive, it makes a sound not unlike the queen bee's note, and, the bees immediately sinking into slumber, the moth proceeds to plunder at its leisure."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Free Consent of the People.

The "pioneer American Democrat" was the Rev. Thomas Hooker of Connecticut, who, in a sermon in Hartford in the year 1633, said, "The foundation of all authority is firstly laid in the free consent of the people." There, in embryo, were the Revolution and the great republic. In the "Fundamental Orders of Connecticut," inspired by Hooker and adopted at Hartford in 1638, we have the first written constitution known to history that created a government. And that government was as near a perfect democracy as the world has ever seen.—New York American.
